We had wonderful experience dealing with Amit... We were looking for house cleaning services which are reliable and affordable... Never wanted to go thru kijiji ad you don't trust them and professional cleaners are way above the budget... Fixed Price was able to provide us services which fulfilled out requirement and we are getting this services every week from last month and are comfortable going forward... This is just one example... We always struggle getting a trustworthy contractor, plumber, electricians and so on... This one place comes with a great price and reliable sources... Highly recommended to see the umbrella of services provided and get one without concerns...
